PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

Game Jams & Hackathons

Participated in 4+ Game Jams and Hackathons

Led rapid prototyping sessions in C++ and C#, managed version control using GitHub, and collaborated within agile teams to deliver playable game demos under tight deadlines.

Official Website Development

International and Ethnic Associations Council Concordia — ieac.ca
(repo private for client's safety)

One of my first web dev projects. Built with minimal dependencies using mostly Express.js, Node.js, EJS, webpack, i18n, and MongoDB.

Vehicle Management System

github.com/aoof/vehicles-management-system

OOP project focused on architecture and data management, built closely to spec.

Clinic Management Windows

github.com/aoof/clinic-management

.NET Framework project built with 4 peers as a final college project. Proud of the design and integration of all teammates' parts despite no prior .NET Framework 6 experience.

AdvertisementOverride

aoof.itch.io/advertisementoverride

A small swarm game built with friends for an online game jam. Used Unity and C# to combine the team's work into a playable loop within a weekend.

VOLUNTEERING

Various Volunteer Activities

- Contributed to the design and development of web pages for Welfare Avenue (non-profit organization), as well as logistical support through Google Ads and Meta Ads.
- Participated in LaSalle College's Fusion Festival.
- Volunteered to represent LaSalle College at the Montreal International Game Summit (MIGS).
- Volunteered at Animaze, a film festival at LaSalle College; helped set up and use Eventbrite's check-in and decorated the gate.
